FOOTNOTES

1. Parcels of 35 acres or more in the A-1 and BC zoning district are exempt from regulations on the numbers of dogs and cats provided that the keeping of such animals does not constitute the operation of a boarding or breeding kennel. Approval of a conditional use permit is required for the establishment of a boarding or breeding kennel in the A-1 district. Kennels are prohibited in the BC district. For the A-1 and BC districts, a) the number of dogs and cats stated in Figure 3-8 shall apply to parcels of 20 acres, up to 35 acres; and b) for parcels of less than 20 acres, the number of dogs and cats allowed to be kept shall comply with the number per zoning district having parcel sizes comparable to the size of the parcel on which the dogs and cats are proposed to be kept.

2. The keeping of dogs or cats in the CG, CN, B-1, B-3, I-1 and M1 zoning districts is permitted as an accessory use to an on-site employee housing unit, and in the CG and CN districts the keeping of dogs or cats is permitted as an accessory use to an affordable workforce housing unit. In addition, up to two dogs per commercial or industrial site may be kept.

3. The keeping of animals shall be permitted as specified in the State or Federal approved authorization.

4. The keeping of animals shall be permitted as specified in a County approved PUD designation, and as provided for in Section 3802. The number of dogs and cats kept in the RP district shall comply with the number allowed for the residential district of comparable size to the size of the parcel in the RP district.

5. Parcels of 35 acres or more in the A-1 district are exempt from regulations on the numbers of livestock and such use does not require approval of a conditional use permit. The limits on the numbers of livestock animals stated in the A-1 zoning district apply to parcels of 20 acres, up to 35 acres. On parcels of less than 20 acres in the A-1 zoning district, the number of livestock animals allowed to be kept shall comply with the number per zoning district having parcel sizes comparable to the size of the parcel on which the livestock is proposed to be kept, and provided a Nonconforming Parcel Plan Review has been approved for the property.

6. Parcels of 35 acres or more in the A-1 district are exempt from regulations on the numbers of poultry and chickens stated in Figure 3-8. For the A-1 and BC districts, a) the number of poultry and chickens stated in Figure 3-8 shall apply to parcels of 20 acres, up to 35 acres; and b) for parcels of less than 20 acres, the number of poultry and chickens allowed to be kept shall comply with the number per zoning district having parcel sizes comparable to the size of the parcel on which the poultry and chickens are proposed to be kept.

7. Permitted as an accessory use to residential uses.

8. Goats shall be included in the maximum number of dogs and cats allowed in the R-1 and and RC-40000 zoning districts. For example, the maximum number of dogs and cats allowed in these zoning disctricts is 3, without a conditional use permit. If there are 2 goats on the property, then only one other dog or cat may be allowed.

9. The only livestock permitted in the R-1 and RC-40,000 zoning districts are Miniature, Pygmy, and Dwarf goats in accordance with Section 3802.02.D. Properties shall be a minimum of 40,000 square feet. A maximum of 3 goats are permitted and a minimum of two goats are required.

10. Where expressly permitted by a PUD, Miniature, Pygmy, and Dwarf goats are permitted in accordance with Section 3809.02.D.
